A REVOCATION OF AUTHORIZATION means that the written agreement with the originating company, which was signed or similarly authenticated to allow payments processed through the ACH network to be deposited in or withdrawn from an account at a financial institution, has been cancelled. The account holder must revoke authorization directly with the originating company prior to the return of the debit.

ACH Operations Staff: Use code R07 to return a debit where authorization was revoked. R07 cannot be used for TEL, POP, or single-entry WEB entries.

AN UNAUTHORIZED DEBIT means an electronic funds transfer was never properly authorized by the account holder. An ACH debit in an amount greater than that authorized by the account holder, or that occurs on an earlier date than that authorized, is also considered unauthorized. An unauthorized debit does not include an electronic funds transfer initiated with fraudulent intent by the account holder or any person acting in concert with the account holder.

ACH Operations Staff: Use code R10 to return an unauthorized consumer debit. If the unauthorized debit was originated to the consumer account using a corporate standard entry class code (CCD, CTX, or CBR), use code R05.

AN IMPROPER DEBIT means an RCK, ARC, BOC, or POP entry where the item to which the entry relates is ineligible, or other criteria related to notice, amount, or authenticity of signature as described to the left are not met. An RCK, ARC, BOC, or POP entry is also considered improper if both the electronic and paper items have been presented for payment. Account holders may also formally opt out of check conversion activity (ARC and BOC).

ACH Operations Staff: Use R10 for improper ARC, BOC, or POP entries, and R51 for improper RCK entries. If the source document (paper item) has been presented for payment, use R37 for ARC, BOC, or POP entries, and R53 for RCK entries. (Although outside the scope of this document, please note that if a stop payment was placed on the source document, use R38 to return an ARC or BOC entry, and R52 for an RCK entry.)
